

Conference programme: Shipwrecks in the Intertidal Zone – Archaeological and Historical Approaches

Presentation length: 20 mins + Q&A: 5 mins. The remote talks are indicated in blue with the respective time zone. Please note that the times within the session should not be understood as fixed to the minute, so please allow for minor delays. The programme is subject to change.

Friday, 18.11.2022

University of Hamburg, Edmund-Siemers-Allee 1 | Lecture hall: Emil-Artin-Hörsaal (ESA M)

18:00	Public keynote speech: Prof. Dr. Jerzy Gawronski (Docking the Amsterdam Foundation, Amsterdam) Docking the Amsterdam (1749). From an intertidal shipwreck to a public excavation
-------	--

Abaton Bistro, Grindelhof 14a (www.abaton-bistro.de)

20:00	Informal dinner at the Abaton Bistro
-------	--------------------------------------

Saturday, 19.11.2022

International Maritime Museum Hamburg, Koreastraße 1 | Room: KDM Lounge (Deck 7)

09:00	Registration
09:15	Opening by the organisers: Dr. Ulf Ickerodt & Prof. Dr. Oliver Auge
09:40	Technical notes. Session chair: Dr. Daniel Zwick
09:50	Dr. Kurt Bennett (Heritage New Zealand) The " Daring " Rescue: The story of New Zealand's best preserved mid-19 th century schooner
UTC+11: (ca. 20:10)	Dr. Brad Duncan (University of New England / Heritage New South Wales) Now You See It/ Now You Don't: Management of the Buster Shipwreck at Woolgoolga, NSW
10:40	Break
10:50	Dr. Jann Markus Witt (Marinebund) From ship to wreck Dr. Florian Huber (SUBMARIS) Stranded in paradise: The German Raider SMS Seeadler in French Polynesia Cécile Sauvage (DRASSM) Saint-Pierre-et-Miquelon (France): The archipelago of shipwrecks, from myth to study
12:00	Break
12:15	Transfer to the Port Museum and lunch break
13:15	Guided tour on the four-masted barque PEKING (1911)
14:15	Transfer back to the IMMH
14:50	Dr. Tom Dawson & Dr. Joanna Hambly (St. Andrews University) Boat Graveyards in Scotland Dan Atkinson (Wessex Archaeology Scotland) The Fuday wreck: Evidence of a northwest European trading vessel from the 16 th -17 th century discovered in the Scottish Outer Hebrides Andy Sherman (Museum of London Archaeology) CITIZAN: shipwrecks and smartphones, the rapid recording of vessels in the intertidal zone

16:00	Coffee break (Kaispeicher B Café)
16:30 UTC-6 (ca. 9:50)	Daisy Turnbull (Universities of Portsmouth and Halmstad) Towards a coastal history of wrecking in the North Sea: identity and practice of British and Swedish 'wreckers' Dr. Charles McGinsey (Louisiana Office of Cultural Development) Preservation, Public Interaction, and the Brookhill wreck in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, U.S.
17:20	Break
17:30 UTC-5 (ca. 11:30)	Dr. Jennifer Elizabeth Jones (East Carolina University) Tides of change: coastal geomorphology and the management of shipwrecks on beaches Brendan Burke (Virginia Department of Historic Resources) An Inspiring and Inclusive History: The Nansemond Ghost Fleet of Suffolk, Virginia Dr. Chuck Meide (Lighthouse Archaeological Maritime Program) "Skeletons of Foundered Ships": Intertidal Shipwrecks of St. Augustine, Florida, America's Oldest Port
18:45	End of the first conference day

WASSERSCHLOSS Speicherstadt, Dienerreihe 4 (<https://wasserschloss.de/>)

19:00	Conference dinner
-------	-------------------

Sunday, 20.11.2022

International Maritime Museum Hamburg, Koreastraße 1 | Room: KDM Lounge (Deck 7)

09:00	Opening. Session chair: Prof. Dr. Oliver Auge
09:10 UTC-0 (ca. 8:30)	Prof. Dr. Gabriel Zeilinger (University of Erlangen-Nürnberg / German Maritime Museum, Bremerhaven) Shipwreck in Medieval and Early Modern Times: On the history of maritime risk-taking conserved in language, writing and objects Dr. Julian Whitewright (Royal Commission on the Ancient and Historical Monuments of Wales) The inter-tidal shipwrecks of Wales: Challenges and Opportunities Dr. Christopher Jacob Ries (Strandingsmuseum St. George) Wrecks, farmers and fishermen: the beginnings of commercial diving on the Danish West Coast 1830 – 1910 Dr. Daniel Zwick (State Archaeology Department of Schleswig-Holstein) The Riddle of the Shifting Sands: The historic shipwrecks of the North Frisian Wadden Sea exposed by coastal erosion
10:50	Coffee break (KDM lounge)
11:30	Stefan Brenner (University of Kiel) Between Beach Rights and Beach Robbery - the Lower Elbe as a Conflict Area in the 13th and 14th Centuries Alec Ewing, & Corina Hordijk (Stichting Texels Museum) Musealization of rare and clandestine textiles from Texel's Palmwood Wreck Robert Shaw (The Discovery Programme, Centre for Archaeology and Innovation Ireland) The CHERISH project: Investigating the impacts of climate change on intertidal wrecks José Manuel Matés Luque (Arqueocean) Removing the mud from forgotten wrecks in the intertidal zone in the Basque Country, Spain
13:15	End of the conference, time for questions and comments on the proceedings