At a glance

- Founded in 1979, the University of Cádiz is a public university located in Cádiz and noted for its medicine and marine sciences curricula. Its Latin motto is Non Plus Ultra ("No Further Beyond").
- 11 faculties, 48 Bachelors degrees, 50 Masters degrees, 16 PhD programmes.
- 22,000 students, 3,000 employees.
- Website: https://www.uca.es/?lang=en
International cooperation & Research focus

The University of Cádiz operates a number of research groups on the following research areas:

- Agrifood
- Biology and Biotechnology
- Social, Economic and Legal Sciences
- Health Sciences and Techniques
- Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics
- Humanities
- Natural Resources and Environment
- Information and Communication Technologies
- Production Technologies

More Information can be found at: https://www.uca.es/groups/?lang=en

For doctoral research under any of the research focus of the University of Cádiz, more information and program details can be found here: https://oficinadeposgrado.uca.es/offer-of-doctoral-programs-by-the-university-of-cadiz/?lang=en
Infrastructure

The University of Cádiz offers the following highly competitive centers and cutting edge technologies to its researchers:

- Electron Microscopy and Materials Sciences
- Marine Sciences Research Institute
- Viticulture & Agri-food Research Institute
- Research Institute in Biomedicine
- Research Institute in Biomolecules
- Sustainable Social Development
- Applied Linguistics

Study programmes

The offer of the University of Cádiz' study programmes can be found here: https://www.uca.es/grados/?lang=en