Programme

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 11:00 – 11:30 | Introduction
Annette Haug and Miko Flohr                                                             |
| 11:30 – 12:15 | In search of urban time. Sundials and Roman urban life
Adrian Kröger-Hielscher (Kiel)                                                          |
| 12:15 – 13:00 | The Display of Objects in Processions: the Governor in the Provincial Capital
Luke Lavan (Kent)                                                                        |
| 13:00 – 14:00 | Lunch Break                                                                               |
| 14:00 – 14:45 | Artefacts and the Inequality Experience
Miko Flohr (Leiden)                                                                       |
| 14:45 – 15:30 | Changing objectscapes and (urban) innovation. The case of late Republican Rome
Miguel-John Versluys (Leiden)                                                            |
| 15:30 – 16:00 | Coffee break                                                                              |
| 16:00 – 16:45 | Materiality in Motion: The Curious Itineraries of Romano-Egyptian Figurines
Anna Boozer (New York, ONLINE)                                                            |
| 16:45 – 17:30 | De-energized Cluttering. The endlife of artefacts in Roman cities.
Greg Woolf (UCLA)                                                                        |
| 17:30 – 18:00 | Concluding discussion                                                                     |